PURPOSE

We are committed to providing a strong Management Committee team who are aware of their roles and responsibilities to the OSHC Service, children, families, educators, and community. The Management Committee will adhere to Education and Care Services National Law and Regulations, the National Quality Standard, Family Assistance Law and other relevant legislation as required by an employer. The Management Committee will maintain their professionalism at all times, performing in an ethical manner, which is reflective of the Service's philosophy.

SCOPE

This policy applies to children, families, staff, management, approved provider, nominated supervisor, educators and visitors of the OSHC Service.

IMPLEMENTATION

This Management Committee Policy is to be used in conjunction with the Governance Policy.

The Management Committee is elected each year at our Annual General Meeting (AGM). All family members of children who attend the OSHC Service are invited to join the Management Committee.

Within the Management Committee is an executive team, the executive team may include Persons with management or control of the service (PMC) as defined by ACECQA. Persons with management or control may participate in executive or financial decision-making or have authority or responsibility for, or significant influence over, the planning, direction or control of the activities or the delivery of the education and care service (ACECQA 2023) All members of the committee, including general members and executive team members have equal decision-making powers and contribute to all decisions. The members of the committee may include: School Council, OSCH Sub- committee, parent representatives, two community representatives and two staff representatives.

The Management Committee has an overall responsibility for the sustainability and relevance of the Service. The Committee provides effective governance to support the operation of our quality education and care Service and actively supports families to meaningfully engage with the Service philosophy, policies and procedures and provide feedback to ensure continual improvement.

Our OSHC Service operates under the Service Constitution which guides the governance and functioning of the organisation and management committee. The Constitution guides governance rules while providing direction and purpose of the organisation's decision-making processes. The Management Committee will ensure the Service Constitution is reviewed every 3 years. The Service Constitution states the Management Committee must operate with the following minimum positions filled; Principal, School Council President, OSCH coordinator. School Council committee members will be elected as per the Service Constitution and positions renewed every 12 months.

Our OSHC Service embeds the National Child Safe Principles into our organisational leadership, governance and culture. We implement a child safe culture and are committed to child safety and wellbeing. Our Code of Conduct sets out the behaviours that are expected by all members of the Management Committee when interacting with children and young people.

FUNCTIONS OF THE MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Management Committee sets the strategic direction of the service and is responsible for the overall operation and governance as the approved provider of the OSHC Service. The Management Committee is to oversee service operations to ensure all requirements of the Education and Care National Law and Regulations are met at all times.

Essentially, the Management Committee has five vital functions and Committee members contribute to one or more of these functions, depending on their interests, experience and skills:

- Finance: day to day finances, administration issues, employee duties, general organisation; annual budget, financial statements; legal requirements; insurance policies; reporting requirements to Government bodies- (CCS); fundraising
- Communication: Publicity and public relations, keeping the Service's community informed of Committee decisions, new policies, events, etc.
- Future planning: Being actively involved in the Service's Quality Improvement Plan (QIP), Strategic Plan and the Professional Development Plan for Service staff
- Policy development: Formulating, review, updating and approval of the Service's policies, procedures, and philosophy as required, in conjunction with the Nominated Supervisor, staff, and families
- Recruitment: Ensure a suitably qualified and experience Nominated Supervisor is appointed to oversee day to day operations of the service.

SUB-COMMITTEE

At times the Management Committee may organise separate sub-committees to assist with the operation and governance of the OSHC Service. Sub-committees may be set up long term or for a short-term period to assist the committee to focus on a particular responsibility or task. Examples of sub-committees include staffing committee, WH&S committee, fundraising committee, and policy committee. The Management Committee may delegate decision making powers to the sub-committee group or they may be required to report back to the Management Committee. Prior to a sub-committee being formed a Terms of Reference will be defined including roles, responsibilities and decision-making authorities.

NEW COMMITTEE MEMBERS

All new Management Committee Members will complete a Declaration of fitness and propriety form (PA02), which is submitted to the Australian Children's Education & Care Quality Authority (ACECQA) to provide evidence they are deemed a fit and proper person as per the Education and Care Services National Law Act 2010 Section 12.

All Committee Members are to hold a valid Working with Children/ Vulnerable Person Check which has been verified.

New Committee Members will undertake an induction to their role, including completion of the New Committee Member Induction Checklist (see: Appendix 1). New Committee Members who are appointed as an executive Management Committee Member are encouraged to undertake formal training for the role (President, Secretary, Treasurer, Public Officer). New Committee members will be provided a copy of the Service Constitution, Service Strategic Plan and Quality Improvement Plan upon appointment.

New Committee Members who take on an executive role within the committee will be required to complete the background checks as identified below (See Authorised Personnel). The regulatory authority will be notified within 14 days of any changes to the executive committee or Persons with management or control.

See Appendix 2 regarding roles and responsibilities of executive management committee positions

AUTHORISED PERSONNEL

The Management Committee will ensure all executive members who identify as Persons with Management and Control of the Provider (as per National Quality Framework and Child Care Subsidy (CCS) requirements) undertake fit and proper check as per National Regulations and Family Assistance Law requirements. All Persons with Management and Control are required to register with PRODA and have their identity verified and background checks conducted.

Fit and Proper checks for Persons with Management and Control:

- Australian National Police Criminal History Check (performed within the last 6 months)
- Working With Children Check
- National Personal Insolvency Index check
- Current and Historical personal name extract search (performed within the last 6 months)
- ASIC Search, evidence the person does not appear on the Banned and Disqualified register (performed within the last 3 months)

The Management Committee will ensure all members registered with PRODA remain fit and proper in accordance with Section 55 of the Child Care Subsidy Minister's Rules 2017.

NOTIFICATIONS OF CHANGES TO MANAGEMENT

The Management Committee will ensure any changes, including the appointment or removal of committee members, to the Management Committee or Persons with management or control, are reported to the regulatory authority within 14 days. New Committee Members are required to complete a Declaration of fitness and propriety form (PA02) which is submitted to the regulatory authority as evidence of fit and proper persons.

The Management Committee will notify the Department of Education of changes within the Management Committee or Persons with management or control, as per obligations within the required timeframe as outlined within the Childcare Provider Handbook.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Our OSHC Service has an ethical and legal responsibility to protect the privacy and confidentiality of children. All Management Committee Members are required to read, understand and follow the Privacy and Confidentiality Policy and Procedure for the Service. Previous minutes or documentation of items or issues discussed at Management Committee meetings may be confidential in nature. Previous minutes may be requested; however, items may be removed if confidential in nature.

DECISION MAKING

The Service Constitution set out the requirements regarding how decisions are made, the constitution will advise the structure and positions that must be held within the Management Committee. The Service Constitution will provide guidance on the number of members required to be present for each meeting to go ahead, a quorum is required to determine the number of voting members who are to be present when business decisions are made during the meeting. Committee Members are required to disclose any conflicts of interest, whether actual, potential or perceived when voting on business decisions.

COMPLAINT MANAGEMENT

The Management Committee members will follow the services Dealing with Complaints Policy and Procedure. The Management Committee will ensure staff, families, visitors or community members are encouraged to follow the Dealing with Complaints Policy and Procedure in the event they are notified of a complaint or grievance. Any complaint that alleges a breach of the National Law and National Regulations, National Quality Standard or alleges that the health, safety or wellbeing of a child at the Service may have been compromised, must be reported by the approved provider or nominated supervisor to the Regulatory Authority within 24 hours of the complaint being made.

RECRUITMENT

The Management Committee is responsible for the recruitment of all staff and employees. The Management Committee will follow the services Recruitment Policy and Procedures. The Management Committee will ensure a suitably qualified and experienced nominated supervisor/ director oversees the day to day running of the service. The Management Committee will delegate responsibilities to the nominated supervisor/ director as per the Job Description for the position. The Management Committee will be responsible for ensuring the nominated supervisor/ director meets the responsibilities for the role and position. Performance Management will be initiated by the Management Committee as required following any concerns regarding performance of the nominated supervisor/director. The Management Committee is responsible for implementation of the Probation and Induction procedure for new Directors as per the Probation, Induction and Orientation Policy.

The Management Committee may organise a sub-committee (Staffing Sub-Committee) to support the Director in the role of recruitment of all staff and employees. The Management Committee may delegate authority of recruitment to the Staffing Sub-Committee to authorise appointment of staff and employees.

Our OSHC Service is committed to be a child safe Education and Care Service and embeds the National Child Safe Principles as recommended by the National Office for Child Safety. Our robust recruitment processes play a vital role in protecting children from harm.
